THE RYLES FIRM OF WEST PALM BEACH HAS SELECTED THE MAROME AGENCY AS AGENCY OF RECORD (AOR) FOR 2008

February 1, 2008, Fort Lauderdale, FL – West Palm Beach Attorney and Principle of The Ryles Firm, Richard A. Ryles, Esq. has chosen The Marome Agency, LLC of Fort Lauderdale to handle the firm's communications and event management needs for 2008.

Richard A. Ryles, Esq., a native of West Palm Beach, is on a mission to change the way that African-American men are viewed in the public and has taken a particular interest in the community surrounding his law firm.

In December, Ryles hosted a holiday event for the residents of the West Palm Beach Housing Authority. At Tis' the Season to Show Love, The Ryles Firm gave out over 200 book bags filled with age appropriate reading materials to all of the students that were in attendance, in addition to giving away 30 velvet jewelry boxes and holiday reefs to all matriarchs in attendance.

In 2008, Ryles will kick-off his year of giving back by hosting a bus trip to Sarasota, FL for 80 boys and men to view a Spring Training Exhibition game between the Cincinnati Reds and Atlanta Braves. Followed by establishing a local reading program at the three surrounding elementary schools near his office appropriately titled the Ryles Readers.

In addition to those two exciting ventures, Ryles is planning several other major events that will benefit the citizens of Palm Beach County.
